his present job.

After a train ride of two nights and a day, the Nationals opened up in St. Louis, winning all four games scheduled From there to Chicago, then to Detroit and Cleveland, sweeping everything be-fore them. The Athletics came to Washington for one game, and lost it. The next day the club played in Philadelphia, where the victory string was snapped, when Frank Baker put the ball over the right field fence for a home run.

The Griffmen declare that if they beat Boston tomorrow they will make a clean sweep of the series in New York and then Westward, ho! for a grand wind-

Time alone will tell whether this can be accomplished. The writer is hardly as optimistic as some of Griff's overenthusiastic young athletes.

as one of the games booked for New York during the opening series in Gotham last April was postponed on ac-count of rain, the Nationals will open at the Polo Grounds on Tuesday with a double-header.
